Mr Paul Walker,
Herefordshire Council,
Plough Lane,
Hereford,
HR4 OLE.

Dear Mr Walker,

Further to my letter dated 12th May 2024 (copy attached), I duly note the ongoing disregard and delay in addressing my valid concerns, delaying redress and justice.

I now insist that you personally acknowledge, in writing, the receipt of my Investigatory Powers Tribunal leave to appeal form, which was emailed to you on 3rd May 2024, received and viewed. I intend to appeal to the Court of Appeal regarding Herefordshire Council's unauthorised surveillance and monitoring of my website and social media over several years. This monitoring, coupled with your colleagues' long-running campaign of psychological abuse, has caused me not only distress but actual irreversible physical harm.

Additionally, as previously requested under my data protection right to access personal data, and other supplementary information, I ingeminate that the following should be provided without causing further unnecessary distress or delay; having disregarded my request for no less than two and a half calendar months.

• True copies of all 145 individual emails declared to be sent to and received by councillors regarding this matter referred to in the statement letter of response to the Investigatory Powers Tribunal and Notice of Decision letter (point 6).

• True copies of all emails received by each councillors requesting their help in obtaining authorizations including Court Orders held by Herefordshire Council for the repeated visits and monitoring of my website and social media.

• Confirmation and delivery report displaying all 145 individual alleged emails were delivered to each councillor recipient regarding my request for assistance regarding obtaining authorisations of the Council's repeated visits and data collection from my website and social media platforms.

• Details of the external IP address used for visits by Herefordshire Council, including via your service provider (Hoople) to my website and social media from the 20th of November 2022 to the 12th of September 2023 (point 15) associated with the private network address 10.10.18.13.

• All communications and records, internal and external, that refer to me, my website or my social media accounts from the 1st of September 2021 to the 12th April 2024.

• As previously requested in my letters, including the 10th of January 2023, 20th February 2024 and 20th March 2024, please also supply the following information that I am entitled to under The General Data Protection.

Lastly, and further to the continued demands I receive for Council tax which I refute I should have been paying since your prolonged punitive restrictions on communication, mishandling and destruction of my data, disregard of ill-health, disability, and The Equality Act, Please find a copy of my letter (minus copy of attached disputed cheque [redacted] noting my application for backdating similarly remains ignored and unaddressed since application and refusal to provide me with the necessary form for almost four years.

I look forward to receiving the requested

Sincerely

[redacted]

Mr C. Bury
