Dear Mr Bury,

Unreasonable Behaviour & Your Letter 22 October 2024

I reference your letter above.

You are aware that you were declared vexatious by the Council and this status has been extended until 14 March 2025.

We will not respond to you on your 'surveillance' allegations or council tax backdating. You have been provided with the Council's answers in relation to both of these matters. Irrespective of the number of times you raise the same question, the Council's answer remains the same.

This means that you will not receive any more responses from any part of the Council on these points.

In relation to your subject access response, the Council's information governance team has responded to you separately.

Yours sincerely

[redacted]

Sean O'Connor
Director of Governance & Law
