PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL
Mr C. Bury
[redacted]

Dear Mr Bury,

Your Letter 21 November 2024

I reference your letter above. I will respond using the same headings in your letter.

Acknowledgement of Communications

We have not received letters dated the 27 July and 22 September. We have received letters dated 28 July and 23 September and these have been fully responded to you by the relevant department. This is just a repetition of matters dealt with previously and we don't intend to correspond any further on this.

Council Tax Backdating Claim

The Valuation Tribunal has already made a decision on this on 25 October 2023 under reference VT[redacted] We are not communicating any further on this point.

Designation of 'Unreasonable Behaviour'

The vexatious status relates to the matters which you have already received the Council's responses. This was explained in the original letter 05 September 2023 and in subsequent communications. It does not relate to any other areas of services that you may receive from the Council. The vexatious status will be revised as set out in the Council's letter of the 13 September 2024.

Subject Access Request

I note your comments in relation to your previous Subject Access Request. The Council always aims to deal with any requests for information in accordance with the statutory framework and guidance issued by the relevant bodies.

General Conduct and Resolution

In response to your numbered questions:

1. This letter is acknowledgement.
2. This has been answered already.
3. Please see above.
4. The Council always aims to deal with any requests for information in accordance with the statutory framework and guidance issued by the relevant bodies.

Yours sincerely
