Dear Mr Bury,

Your report about Claire Porter and Sean O'Connor

Thank you for reaching out to our social media team in response to my Decision Not to Investigate.

Under the SRA Application, Notice, Review and Appeal Rules, there is no right of appeal or review of this decision, either by you as the person who reported the concerns to us, or by the subject of the decision.

If you are unhappy with the service you have received, you can make a service complaint. However, please note that the purpose of our complaints procedure is not to review a decision you disagree with, it is there to identify any material failings in our investigation or in the service we have provided. Further information about making a complaint can be found here on our website.

Yours sincerely,

Mohammed Rayhan (he/him)
