Subject: RE: E [REDACTED] - Family Home Visit [REDACTED] Sept 2016

Thanks for this.

Just to update you all.

Peter has shared these emails with the social work team at Hereford, who has also shared concerns regarding this persons mental health state, due to the social worker having a complaint made against her and also the advocate has also had a complaint made against him.

All professionals involved in this situation feel he is now Harassing the professionals involved, and therefore will now be looking for the care arrangements for [REDACTED] to be established and monitored through the court of protection.

The social workers are very supportive of everything H [REDACTED] house are doing and have done so far to date and have instructed Peter at H [REDACTED] House that they will deal with this complaint themselves.

This person has no legal right to personal information about [REDACTED] other than on a need to know basis – of which we have fully complied, CB has ignored all information discussed in the meeting on the [REDACTED] and gone ahead and done his own thing.

I will keep you all in the loop as this progresses.

Sarah
