Dear Mr Vickers

Our client: Mr Christopher Bury of [REDACTED]

I have been instructed by Christopher Bury in connection with issues concerning the wellbeing of his brother, D [REDACTED] E [REDACTED] and in particular the care he has been receiving at H [REDACTED] H [REDACTED] residential home.

I have seen copies of your recent correspondence to my client concerning, among other things, the setting up of a meeting between you and my client to discuss my client's concerns regarding D [REDACTED]'s wellbeing.

As unfortunately no meeting was arranged, my purpose in writing to you is to try to set up a mutually convenient appointment to be attended by you, my client and me. My client has requested that the meeting be held at this firm's offices in Worcester city centre. My client's existing care commitments in respect of his mother severely restricts his availability to attend such a meeting, and so he asks if the meeting could proceed on any Wednesday between 12 noon and 3:00 pm.

Please could I trouble you to let me have some convenient dates for you to meet? Frankly, the more dates you are able to offer, the better. I will then take further instructions on which date works best for my client.

Once we have set up the meeting, I will advise my client to produce an agenda/list of matters that he wishes to raise, which list I can then forward to you ahead of the meeting. I hope that
