Dear Mr Bury,

Thank you for your letter dated 1st February, informing me that you were unable to attend the proposed meeting.

I agree that the meeting would still be of use and am willing to meet with you on a mutually convenient day and time as you suggest. You are of course welcome to invite your solicitor to the meeting. Provided the venue is a local one, I am also willing to meet you at your solicitor's office.

I understand that you have regular contact with your brother's social worker and so suggest that he might be best placed to make the arrangements for the meeting. I will provide him with several proposed dates, one of which I hope will be agreeable to you.

Yours sincerely
